

FY10 Agribusiness
January 12, 2010
Awards

| ID | Organization Name                                                                    | Project Title                                                                                                    | Award     |
|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| 1980      | Campbell County                                                                             | Central Virginia Commodity Storage Initiative                                                                           | $500,000 |
| 1972      | Cumberland IDA                                                                              | Cumberland County Regional Anaerobic Digester Project                                                                   | $200,000 |
| 1979      | Grayson LandCare                                                                            | Meat Harvesting Facility for Southwest Virginia                                                                         | $50,000  |
| 1976      | Halifax County                                                                              | Study for Mobile Slaughter / Meat Processing Facilities                                                                 | $20,000  |
| 1777      | Town of Kenbridge                                                                           | Kenbridge Farmer's Market                                                                                               | $55,000  |
| 1968      | Marion Downtown Revitalization Association, Inc.                                            | Marion Regional Farmers Market, Phase 2                                                                                 | $55,000  |
| 1962      | Southwest VA Agricultural Association (on behalf of Mountain Empire Beekeepers Association) | Farmers and Beekeepers in Transition                                                                                    | $125,000 |
| 1974      | Prince Edward County                                                                        | Southern Piedmont Regional Local Food Supply: Growing a Local Food Economy to Virginia's Southern Piedmont              | $350,000 |
| 1959      | Russell County Industrial Development Authority                                             | Russell County Farmer's Market                                                                                          | $85,000  |
| 1907      | Scott Farmers Cooperative, Inc.                                                             | Livestock Feed Facility                                                                                                 | $250,000 |
| 1975      | South Centre Corridors RC&D Council                                                         | South Centre Corridors Resource Conservation & Development (RC&D) Council Buy Fish, Buy Local Chapter                   | $20,000  |
| 1981      | Spencer-Penn School Preservation Organization                                               | Establishing and Sustaining a Community Kitchen                                                                         | $100,000 |
| 1977      | Virginia Tech                                                                               | Grazing into the Future: Improving the Economic Viability of Ruminant Livestock Operations in Southside Virginia        | $433,328 |
| 1978      | Virginia Tech                                                                               | Increasing Farm Profitability: A Comprehensive On-farm Energy Efficiency Pilot Program                                  | $248,842 |
| 2003      | Virginia Tech                                                                               | Shrimp Culture in Recirculating Aquaculture Systems (referred from R&D)                                                 | table     |
| 1982      | Virginia State University                                                                   | Biodiesel and Legume Feed/Food Crops to Alleviate Loss of Tobacco as a Cash Crop                                        | $238,750 |
| 1984      | Virginia State University                                                                   | Revitalization of Virginia Tobacco Farms through High Value Edamame Production: Demonstration, Education, and Marketing | $226,281 |